Eddie & the STARLITES

Come feel the love!!

Spend a lovely afternoon listening to the love songs of past and present as Eddie & the Starlites revisit the romantic era of rhythm and blues, featuring an incredible variety of songs.

This performance is open to the public and is free of charge.

"As Love Goes On"

Enjoy the music of Curtis Mayfield, Tony Williams, Gamble & Huff, Smokey Robinson and many more. Eddie & the Starlites was formed in 1957. Immediately thereafter, their song "To Make a Long Story Short," recorded in 1958, was one of the top 10 songs on the charts of Billboard Magazine.

Members of the Starlites include Eddie Jenkins, Richard Moore (who originally sang with the Persuasions), Warren Tesoro (of Norman Fox & the Rob Roys, who recorded "Tell Me Why"), and Raymond Sanders (sang with the Persuasions, the Drifters, the Jesters and many more).

Eddie and the Starlites have appeared on Showtime at the Apollo with Steve Harvey, at Great Adventure with the Chantels, with the Paragons and Ronnie I at UGHA (United in Group Harmony Association), at the Doo Wop Shop with Don K. Reed, the Art Loria TV Show, the Broward Center for Fine Arts in Fort Lauderdale, and at the Convention Center in Sacramento California.
