

Join us for two special events to celebrate Black History Month.

Elmont Memorial Library
Children's Room
700 Hempstead Turnpike
Elmont, New York 11003
516-354-5280, extension 1005

Celebrate Black History Month
in the Children's Room with Lee Knight

Black History: From the Plantation to the White House!

Join musician/performer/entertainer Lee Knight on a musical journey through time using literature by Faith Ringgold and other authors as we go from a southern plantation, through the Underground Railroad, to Abe Lincoln's fight to end slavery, on to Rosa Park's bus and finally celebrating Barack Obama in the White House.

Your children will be singing, dancing and re-enacting history in this incredible journey.

Saturday, January 28 @ 1:00 in Room 1
Registration begins January 14

and...Author Muriel Harris Weinstein will be here in person to discuss her newest book, Play, Louis, Play.

Learn about the life of the great jazz trumpeter and singer, Louis Armstrong in this completely interactive workshop where kids will get to role-play characters in the story and ask questions.

Tuesday, February 7 @ 4:30
for kids in grades K—6.
Registration begins Jan. 31
Adults and younger siblings welcome.

